

What's Included and How to Use It

This curriculum packet contains a comprehensive set of materials to help you integrate CareerStarter into your course. It includes teacher-facing and student-facing plans, instructions, worksheets, and reference guides.

The materials are presented in the order in which they should be implemented. The activities build on each other so that you and your students have a seamless journey, starting with creating accounts on the CareerStarter platform, moving through career exploration, and concluding with resume updates and preparing for the next step in their career.

The materials are designed to be flexible for your unique classroom environment. They are intended for you to make them your own as you coach your students through their craft and career journeys.
